

XM's local weather and traffic for the Philadelphia area has been an INCREDIBLE benefit when driving on trips - driving out of town - and since i live in the Suburbs, when I need to make a trek into Center City. It is much more detailed than any local AM station - and I can get the information when I want it, not when it's given to me.

Please allow XM to continue this service - it only makes their programming that much better.